Melanie Safka Schekeryk, also known as “Melanie” (born February 3, 1947), is a U.S. singer-songwriter. Born in Astoria, New York, she made her first recording, "Gimme A Little Kiss", at the tender age of five. Europe first recognized her as an extraordinarily talented singer/songwriter. Melanie performed at Woodstock. During her performance, for the first time in pop history, candles were lit (and thus began a tradition). She has been awarded three gold albums. Since 1969 Melanie has made a record annually. They are all produced by her husband, Peter Schekeryk. The couple has three children who are also musicians, Leilah, Jeordie and Beau 'Virtuoso' Jarred Schekeryk. They also have two grandchildren who will probably be musically talented.
