RASPUTIN

There lived a certain man in Russia long ago
 He was big and strong, in his eyes a flaming glow
 Most people looked at him with terror and with fear
 But to Moscow chicks he was such a lovely dear
 He could preach the bible like a preacher
 Full of ecstasy and fire
 But he also was the kind of teacher
 Women would desire

RA RA RASPUTIN
 Lover of the Russian queen
 There was a cat that really was gone
 RA RA RASPUTIN
 Russia's greatest love machine
 It was a shame how he carried on

He ruled the Russian land and never mind the Czar
 But the kasachok he danced really wunderbar
 In all affairs of state he was the man to please
 But he was real great when he had a girl to squeeze

For the queen he was no wheeler dealer
 Though she'd heard the things he'd done
 She believed he was a holy healer
 Who would heal her son

But when his drinking and lusting and his hunger
 'or power became known to more and more people,
 'he demands to do something about this outrageous man became louder and louder.

'This man's just got to go!' declared his enemies
 But the ladies begged "Don't you try to do it, please"
 No doubt this Rasputin had lots of hidden charms
 Though he was a brute they just fell into his arms
 Then one night some men of higher standing
 Set a trap, they're not to blame
 "Come to visit us" they kept demanding
 And he really came
